1ST Untested Ideas International Research Conference

June 28 – 30, 2013
Niagara Falls, USA

You are invited to submit your manuscripts for presentation at the 1st Untested Ideas (UI) International Research Conference. "Advancing research methods" is the theme of the 1st UI International Research Conference. This conference provides the social sciences researchers worldwide with opportunities for presenting research studies, interacting with professionals, attending workshops on advanced research methods in social sciences, and publishing research studies in UI journals, books, and conference proceedings.

All completed manuscripts submitted to the conference will be reviewed for publications in four UI journals, eight UI books proposed specifically for this first international research conference, and conference proceedings. Please visit http://www.untestedideas.com/conferences.html for detailed information. Empirical quantitative, qualitative, or mixed-methods research articles covering topics in the areas of language, communication, leadership, policy, education, culture, TESOL, and learning are all welcomed. These areas are exactly what the four UI journals and eight UI proposed books have covered. Please visit http://www.untestedideas.com/journals.html for detailed scope and content.

If you cannot physically attend the conference, you can still participate in the Online Division of the conference. All completed manuscripts submitted for the Online Division will also be included in the conference proceedings and reviewed for possible publications in the four UI journals and eight UI books.

All conference participants, including Online Division, are required to register in order to be included in the conference program. You are also invited to attend the conference even if you choose not to present a paper. You can go directly to our conference registration site for further details on participation.

You can electronically submit your manuscripts using the UI International Research Conference Submission website (https://cmt.research.microsoft.com/UI2013/Default.aspx). The submission deadline is March 31, 2013. The registration deadline is May 31, 2013. There are a limited number of seats at the conference. Register (http://www.untestedideas.com/registration.html) for the conference and reserve your spot early to guarantee your participation.

If you have any questions about the conference and our publications, please contact us at director@untestedideas.com or visit our www.untestedideas.com website. Hope to see you at the 1st UI International Research Conference in the beautiful Niagara Falls!
